SIERRA MADRE, CALIF. THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1953

VOL. 47, NO. 9

7 Cents a Copy

Around the Square

Here's a little story to advise the innocents who visit Santa Anita race track just for the "beautiful spectacle," but who, at the same time, may want to feel in on things by making at least a $2 bet.

Dottie Underwood of Sierra Madre was there in that capacity the other day. By the time the seventh race rolled around she decided to invest a minimum wager in the day's excitement.

After carefully selecting horse No. 4, her confusion at the crowded pari-mutuel window led her to ask for a ticket on horse No. 2—name of Moonrush.

Which horse won? Moonrush. Naturally, her system may not be very professional, but it's probably as good as any.

Did you notice that Bob Green was strolling the town until recently? Bob is the hard work, conscientious individual who greets you as manager of the Sierra Madre office of Southern California Edison Company, but during the Yuletide he had a week's vacation. Made all the rest of us drool with the dream of a winter vacation. And we mean DREAM!

Ah, well—we, and the Southern California Edison Company, have to admit that he deserved it. Congratulations, Robert!

Now that the holidays have come and gone, most of us are settling back to the old groove that begins with the Monday chores and ends with the comfortable, drowsy hours of Sunday evening—before the alarm clock has to be set. (Do we hear a few sighs of relief?)

But if you've noticed all the shiny new kids wheeling their shiny new bikes around town you'll know that Christmas is a memory still fresh in the minds of many in the younger set.

Not all of them are boys, either. The feminine gender this year is well represented in the field of free-wheelers. A few of them are a bit wobbly on the streets, especially when they see a car coming towards them, but they're usually more cautious than the boys, too.

There's nothing wrong with being wobbly, if it means being cautious. Some of the girls, seeing a car approach, will get off their bikes to stand near the curb until the threat of the automobile is past. That's a sign of intelligence that any motorist would applaud.

GOULIES AND GHOSTIES

The "pranksters" were too much for Sharon Richmond, the night that she was baby-sitting for a family at 730 W. Alegria. When they kept ringing the doorbell and running away, she decided that their persistent nuisance should be a matter for the police.

After the police arrived in response to her call, they discovered that the "pranksters" were a bunch of guilty electrons and positrons, jumping about with playful glee.

The doorbell wires were short circuited.

Post Office Annual Report Shows Increase of Receipts

Postmaster Eddie Robertson has announced the total receipts for the United States Post Office in Sierra Madre for 1952. Pointing out that "receipts" are defined as "the sale of stamps only," Robertson reports as follows:

$97,439.16 in 1952 as compared to $92,310.50 in the previous year, showing an increase of $5,128.66 for 1952.

Machine cancellations, letters only, amounted to 1,360,822 in the year just past, as compared to 1,281,137 cancellations in 1951. The increase in this classification, for 1952, is to the amount of 79,685 letters.

An interesting comparison is seen in the contrast of the amounts of letters handled by the Post Office in Sierra Madre during the month of December 1952, totaling 332,862 cancellations, as compared to December 1951 when 287,296 letters were handled.

Robertson's conclusions to the December comparisons is that either this past year was more prosperous so far as Christmas card buying was concerned, or else the population is increasing faster than most people realize. Or maybe both.

HERE IS A PICTURE OF SIERRA MADRE'S ENTRY in the 1953 Tournament of Roses Parade. Given the Merit Award this year, the float was a community project built on the economical basis of $1500 as compared to cost of some of the entries from cities of 15,000 population that were placed in the same competitive class. Many Sierra Madreans helped voluntarily in the manual labor which the float and people from as far away as Houston, Texas—Mr. and Mrs. Herb Wiggins and daughter, Sigrid, formerly of Sierra Madre—sent their checks to the float fund by reasons of sentiment and loyalty. After the parade it was on display at the post-parade grounds where it was admired by thousands, stripped bare by souvenir hunters, and became nothing but a memory overnight. Those who were aboard in the parade were Ralph "Pappy" Welch, as "Abdul" at center, Ed Toler, standing behind him as "Ivan Skavinsky Skavar," and the six "Harem Girls" who were: Jean Anderson, Bette Cook, Jane Colbert, Nan Hatheway, Renee Murray and Verlynn Woodward. ## Construction Permits Pass $1,300,000

Building Inspector William Lees has announced the construction totals of the year 1952 in Sierra Madre to the amount of $1,327,181. This amount is slightly under the 1951 total of $1,435,259.50.

The December total of $89,644 in 1952, however, was more than double the 1951 December total at $43,235. The permits issued by Lees last month were as follows:

First Baptist Church, 49 S. Baldwin, permit of $300 for a small room; V. Willmess of Temple City, permit for $1500 to erect dwelling-garage at 1900 Vista; Dr. P. R. Woodworth, 522 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, permit for $180 to re-roof; Frank Spencer, 139 W. Orange Grove, $228 for re-roofing; Albert Wheeling, 101 E. Sierra Madre boulevard, $413 to re-roof residence; Walter McCormack, 715 W. Alegria, $300 to re-roof; Mrs. McCoy, 210 Mariposa, $135 to repair part of dwelling; Al Wetherbee, 215 E. Montecito, $1200 to build sun room and bathroom;

Anthony Brothers, Inc., of Pasadena, $2300 to build a swimming pool at 1945 Vista; G. H. Winchell, 240 S. Canon, $15,000 to erect a dwelling.

PTA MEETS NEXT WEEK

The Sierra Madre PTA will meet Thursday evening, Jan. 15, at City School at 7:45 o'clock.

Work of Young Architect On Display Here

The architect's display in Harry Lange's downtown window on the Triangle is the work of Dan Lee Peterson, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, 71 Suffolk.

Dan, who designed the remodeling job for the Peterson home begun last September, was named a winner last fall in a national contest sponsored by the Ford Motor Industrial Arts. He had worked for six months on the house plans, complete with scale model, that won him the national recognition.

A student at John Marshall Junior High School, young Peterson had to have special permission from the Pasadena School Board to take a certain course while in the 9th grade because the course was so far advanced for students of his age. He has known that he wanted to be an architect since he was in the 5th grade, and since then has designed, and built, his own workshop outside his home where he operates his drafting machine.

The display that is representative of his work will remain in Harry Lange's window for another week.

TOP HANDICAPS AT SANTA ANITA

Santa Anita is offering two top stakes in the $25,000 Santa Catalina Handicap for four-year-olds and up, foaled in California, at 1-1/16 miles, and the $20,000 Santa Maria Handicap for fillies and mares, three-year-olds and up, at a flat mile, this Saturday, Jan. 10.

The last short session of four days starts on Wednesday of next week when the Los Feliz Stakes is set for its second running. Another double attraction of the $25,000 San Fernando Stakes and the $20,000 San Carlos Handicap will follow on Saturday, Jan. 17.

Salute Given To All Float Contributors

Charles E. Louk, who has been chairman of the Float Committee, is a happy man today who thinks that the people of Sierra Madre are just about the finest people to be found anywhere in this world.

Louk made a statement to this effect when he reported Tuesday that the $1500 goal that had been set to finance "Abdul A-bul A-mir," Sierra Madre's entry in the 1953 Tournament of Roses Parade, had been reached to within $100.

"I'm sure we'll get that last one hundred dollars," Louk said, "considering the wonderful way in which the people of Sierra Madre have responded to the financial needs for building our float. And when I say 'our float,' I mean it belongs to anyone who contributed the smallest sum, or placed the smallest flower, in making the float's construction possible."

He told of people who had stopped him on the street to ask if the donation of one dollar would be too small. In one case, when answering that no sum was too small, a woman brought forth a crumpled dollar bill with the remark: "I know it isn't much, but when I watch that float go by I like to

John Tholl, 12-year-old Boy Scout of Los Angeles, who plunged 150 feet over a cliff at Chantry Flats last Saturday, owes his life to the quick action of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Crew and residents of Chantry Flats who found him, according to doctors' reports concerning the still unconscious boy last Monday.

His companion, Bob Carter, 12, also of Los Angeles, reported to Scoutmaster John Gussin at 2:30 p.m. that Tholl was missing. Gussin enlisted the aid of Bill Adams, who owns the pack station at Chantry Flats.

Adams found Hubert Herriek, who owns a cabin on Winter Creek, and his visitor, Ralph "Red" Shangraw. While the four men formed a searching party Adams telephoned the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Crew, bringing Sierra Madreans Larry Shepherd, Fred LaLone, Bill Wark, Bill Wolfson and Dan Korby, a Los Angeles policeman who happened to be visiting Wark at the time. They arrived at the scene at about 8 p.m.

The men worked in a circle, groping through the darkness with flashlights and calling to the boy in hopes of arousing him—but there was no answer. Adams kept in touch with those at the Flats by telephone stations along the way. Herriek and Shangraw, who know the country well, made a map to circle the spot where they felt the boy must be, and the search continued.

At 9:30 Shangraw heard what sounded like a person in deep sleep. He couldn't see the boy, but he knew he had found him. Tholl was crumpled in the roots of a tree, two feet away from Shangraw. When Shangraw announced his discovery, the rescue crew came down the mountain with ropes and stretcher.

Republicans To Meet At City Hall Jan. 15

Sierra Madre Republicans will hold a regularly called meeting Thursday evening, Jan. 15 at 8 o'clock at the City Hall Council Chambers. Main purpose of the meeting, according to Mrs. Noren Eaton, will be the election of officers.

Deer Hunters Warned About New Boundary

Hunters who are taking advantage of the special deer season, opened for 15 days beginning Jan. 3 by the State Fish and Game Commission, are advised by Sierra Madre Police to take cognizance of the new signs that recently have been placed north of the city to designate areas in which the shooting of firearms is prohibited.

This action by local police is in keeping with an order from the Los Angeles office of Sheriff E. W. Biscailuz, broadcast to sheriff stations and police departments by teletype last Friday afternoon at 3:15 p.m. It read as follows:

The entire south slope of the San Gabriel Mountain area, from Tujunga to San Dimas, is now closed to hunters due to the great hazard resulting from the discharge of firearms to the homes and schools recently constructed in that area, by a recent amendment to county ordinance 1769.

The section that has been opened to hunters for an extra deer season was formerly a part of State Game Refuge 4B. Concerning the approximate 2000 permits that have been issued for 15 days of deer hunting within the area, the Sheriff's order continues: "All persons holding these permits or hunting are cautioned to check first with the U. S. Forestry Service or any of the Sheriff's stations at Montrose, Altadena, Temple City or San Dimas."

Coordinating Council Has ERC Visitor

Civic activities in Sierra Madre last Tuesday evening were mainly concerned with the city's need of a new school and the bond issue that will be forthcoming if plans already under way are successful. Such plans were further advanced at the meeting of the Coordinating Council, as well as at the Educational Research Committee's session.

Severin Sorenson, chairman of ERC, who divided his time to attend both meetings, told the Council that the steady growth of population in Sierra Madre required the building of another school that would be large enough to handle the student population here now as well as in 1957. The subject was discussed at greater length at the ERC meeting.

Other subjects discussed at Coordinating Council included the Red Feather Community Fund Campaign and the new swimming pool that has been proposed for Sierra Madre. Dave Allen announced that the Red Feather campaign was $1300 behind its goal. He pointed out that in the past those groups that benefited from Red Feather had contributed an

RED CROSS TEACHES FIRST AID TONIGHT

Florence Peterson, executive secretary for the Sierra Madre Red Cross, has announced the beginning of a Standard First Aid Class tonight at the City School cafeteria.

The class, opening at 7:30 o'clock, will be instructed by Col. Charles E. Morrison, and further assisted by Civil Defense Wardens. All persons wishing to attend must register with Mrs. Peterson, either at Red Cross Headquarters, 41 S. Baldwin, or by calling CU. 5-0745.

School Committee Members Say Bond Issue Needed Here

For the first time in many years, Sierra Madre's float, after serving in the Tournament of Roses, is not on display at the Triangle. Reason: All cities in the Tournament were asked to remove their floats from the post-parade grounds, Sierra Madre boulevard at Paloma, at different intervals to avoid a traffic jam. By the time "Abdul A-bul A-mir" was removed, the float had been stripped of flowers by souvenir hunters.

The Educational Research Committee met Tuesday evening at the Sierra Madre City School to consider plans for providing additional school facilities for Sierra Madre children by means of a bond election. School administrators, Board of Trustees, committee members, and interested citizens took part in the discussion.

Howell N. White, Jr., president of the School Board, said that the bond issue would give no consideration to the seventh or eighth grades of Sierra Madre.

"Since we have been contributing taxes for building purposes to the Pasadena High School district for a number of years, we have a vested interest in the Pasadena schools which we have no intention of relinquishing," White said.

This statement was taken to be an answer to those who have suggested that Sierra Madre might be "thrown out" of a redesigned Pasadena School district.

The proposed bond issue to include a new building site is necessary, White said, because further building on the present site would not meet state recommendations.

"The undeveloped Hall property in the eastern part of Sierra Madre, now under consideration by the school board, could be obtained at a far more reasonable figure than property adjacent to the present school," he added.

The Hall estate consists of 11 acres at Canon and Highland. It has been described by Architect Howard Morgridge as being an ideal location with good drainage.

Charles Skutt, superintendent of schools, pointed out that the an appraiser recommended by the office of County Counsel is working on an evaluation of the Hall property. An architect has been requested to estimate cost of six classrooms and an administrative unit, from a tentative master plan already presented.

Bank of Sierra Madre Reports In 45th Year

The Bank of Sierra Madre, observing its 45th year of business, announces a total in resources amounting to $5,569,687.25. Deposits within this amount come to $5,240,863.82, as of Dec. 31, 1952.

According to R. C. Lewis, bank president, these figures compare favorably in showing an increase over last year's figures which totaled $4,630,323.26 in resources, with deposits amounting to $4,330,854.44.

The Bank of Sierra Madre, located in Kersting Court, is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Sierra Madre To Help Raise 2 Million In March of Dimes

Sierra Madre must help Los Angeles county raise $2,000,000 in the March of Dimes drive this month to meet costs of care for local polio patients and to contribute toward research programs, Mrs. Al Stirtan, Sierra Madre chairman for the March of Dimes, has reported. "For the past six years, Los Angeles county has been unable to pay its own way and required grants from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to insure that every person stricken with this dread malady would get the best of care," Mrs. Stirtan said.

"Financial aid has been given to 6,098 polio patients in this county in the past eight years," Mrs. Stirtan continued. "Aid has been given to an average of 600 families each month during 1952."

January, which is March of Dimes month in Los Angeles county, gives residents 30 days to fight polio, which strikes month in and month out with ever increasing savagery, she declared.

"Every day counts and every dime contributed to the March of Dimes is twice as vital now. We must meet the worst polio year in history with the greatest campaign in history."

The March of Dimes drive in Sierra Madre is sponsored by the Civic Club under the following committees:

LOREN HEASLEY BECOMES ENSIGN

Among the 777 enlisted men who received ensigns' commissions recently at the Navy's Officer Candidate School, Newport, R. I., was W. Loren Heasley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Heasley of 536 Oakdale drive, Sierra Madre. College degrees are required of all candidates. In four rigorous months, the class—the eighth and largest since the school opened in June, 1951—covered the same naval subjects that college NROTC students do in four years. Foremost in their training was the study of gunnery, navigation, seamanship, engineering, damage control and operations.

Tuesday—Chili beans, beefs, tossed green salad, peanut butter sandwich, molasses cake, milk.

Wednesday—Turkey and noodles, peas, bread and butter sandwich, apple and celery salad, ice cream, milk.

Thursday—Barbecued meat balls, string beans, lettuce salad, bread and butter sandwich, fruit Jello, milk.

Friday—Macaroni and cheese, spinach, tuna sandwich, carrot and raisin salad, cookies, milk.

Pong is crying for Ping. Sharon is crying for Ping. Sharon is a Siamese cat. Ping is his nine-months-old sister. Sharon is the eight-year-old mistress of Ping 'n' Pong.

Sharon was glad to get Ross Noel. Ping 'n' Pong were glad to get Ross Noel. Sharon is Sharon's new master. He is Ping 'n' Pong's new master. He was born Christmas day.

Four days later Ping disappeared. Now Sharon is sad. Now Pong is sad. Ross Noel would be sad, too, if he knew.

Ping is gone. She was wearing a blue collar. The collar says: Ping, Sharon Tyree. 155 W. Bonita, Sierra Madre. Custer 5-4887. "That's our old number," says Sharon. "Our new number is Custer 5-9618." Sharon will give a reward for Ping.

"My daddy's name is Ross Allen Tyree. We're all sad for Ping. Whoever finds her will just be sad, too. Because Ping will be crying for Pong."

FIRE FLAMES

Friends of the Fire Department, we must be careful. Our wonderful record has been somewhat upset by two very serious fires. One of these was caused by placing flammable materials too near an open heater and then going away and leaving them. The result was that fire ruined the entire living room and adjoining rooms and their contents. Some of the contents of the rooms were of value that cannot be replaced, despite the insurance that covered a large amount of it. The estimated loss from this fire is nearly $9,000 and that's not chicken feed.

The other fire was caused by something with fire connected being allowed to simmer in the upholstery of a davenport. This fire alone could have been the source of several lives lost and nearly was.

Occupants of the house awakened to a flaming room. Not often do people awaken at such a time. Usually they are overcome by smoke or heat. This fire loss amounted to more than $5,500 and not including the rare family heirlooms.

Other fires throughout the year are not excusable and although not as costly, indicate we were just as careless. If we permit any of the above to happen, or go away from an outdoor fire and it spreads to other regions, or we smoke in bed and fortunately awaken before the bed catches fire, we are none the less as guilty of carelessness as those who have costly fires.

We want to seriously thank the many friends for helping us to make the annual Christmas affair a great success. Without this event, there probably would not be a fire department. We enjoy it that much.

Upper Hastings Ranch Party Line

Marge Thomas—CU. 5-2951

Don and Barbara Clark have just recently returned to their Medford avenue home. They flew to Lansing, Mich., to spend the holidays with Don's parents.

Fran and Gordon Knight, and their two children, Geoffrey and Bobby, spent the Christmas weekend with Fran's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Willis, in Redlands. Mr. and Mrs. Willis joined the Knights in their Valley View home for the New Year's weekend.

Lucy and Bill Heller and their two boys, Beep and Andy, have been entertaining Bill's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Trent from Dewey, Oklahoma, over the holidays at their Valley View home. Mr. and Mrs. Trent were able to see the Rose Parade and attend the game with the Hellers. According to Lucy, everyone had a wonderful time and the crowd wasn't too bad.

Ginny and Bill Spalding have taken off for Reno. The trip is partly business but there will be plenty of time for pleasure. The three children, John, Kathleen and Barbara, weren't invited on the "tour" and are staying at the Spalding home on Cartwright.

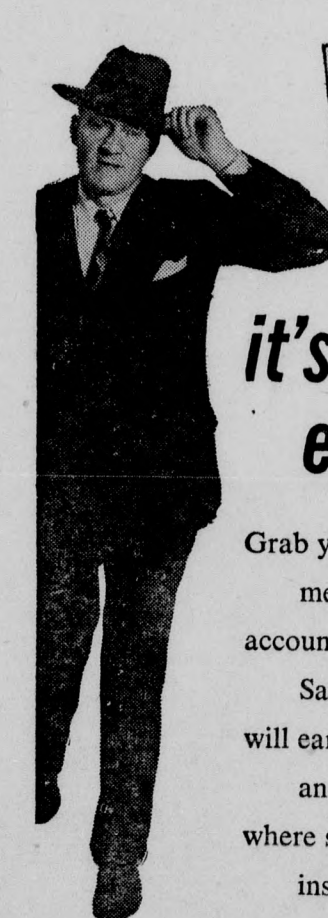

Last month was certainly a very profitable one, for us on the "side of the hill." We had almost an even dozen of new "neighbors" added to our list. One of the new arrivals was John Ransom Post, III. He arrived at the Huntington Memorial Hospital Dec. 10 and weighed 7 pounds, 1 ounce. His parents are Mary and John Post of 1390 Rexford avenue.

Thelma and Harry Alper of Leonard avenue, gave their three-year-old son, David, a new sister, Linda Ann, Dec. 16.

The annual meeting of the Girl Scout Council will be held on Monday, Jan. 12 at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Osborn, 580 Wilcox road. All adults registered in the Girl Scouts are invited. Luncheon will be served.

Election of officers for the coming year is the most important business of the meeting. The nominating committee is made up of Mrs. T. E. Dammeier, Mrs. George Andrews, Mrs. Earl Morris, Mrs. Wm. Rogers and Mrs. P. R. Woodworth.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA MEET

The San Gabriel Valley Club of Alpha Gamma Delta will meet on Thursday, Jan. 15, at the home of Mrs. Harry Redoglia, 2745 Madrillo Court, Pasadena, at 8 p.m.

Patrol Pushes 'Manhunt' For New Officers

The California Highway Patrol has announced to Sierra Madre that it is engaged in its biggest manhunt, as it pushes a statewide search for 700 men who will be eligible for future openings as traffic officers.

Basic requirements are that a man be 21 to 35 years of age, have a high school education, or its equivalent, and be in good health. The deadline for filing applications is Jan. 16, with a written examination slated for Feb. 14.

Appointees will be given an intensive 12-week course at the Highway Patrol Academy at Sacramento where they will learn modern techniques of law enforcement and accident prevention. Present pay scale is $325 to $395 per month.

Applications and detailed information about the examination and the job may be obtained at any Department of Employment office or at the Los Angeles office of the state personnel board.

Give your blood, Jan. 21!

A Letter From Athens To The Folks At Home

Virginia Pittinger, wife of A. Lincoln Pittinger now on an engineering job in Athens, Greece, writes to The News about the experiences she is sharing with her husband and three children during a year's absence from their home in Sierra Madre.

If the language of the tongue were our only means of communication here in Greece we Americans would be handicapped indeed. For our tongues are most effectively tied by our Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Chi, Delta Upsilon knowledge of Greek. Fortunately our hands are free, and the signs for most important functions and necessities are blessedly universal.

Besides, the Greeks are kind. Many of them speak a little English, others a little French and they are all heroic in their efforts to carry on conversations with us. But for those of us who wish to display a little heroism of our own and speak Greek to the Greeks, it is a frustrating business. Consider the alphabet alone. Even though you know that in Greek 'i' is as in 'mill'—you can't say it if you don't recognize it, and you don't recognize it because in the Greek alphabet it's an 'h'. And 'p' is 'r' and 'b' is 'v' and 'x' is 'h' and there is no 'j' sound at all. Thus Pittinger is 'jittintsep'!

But we keep on trying. One day we ran out of gas on a highway outside Athens. We waited 15 minutes for someone to stop and finally, even as in the U.S.A., a truck driver pulled up behind us and stuck his head out the window. Pitt beamed up at him and said to me, "What's the word-for gas?" I thumbed quickly through my army guide to the Greek language and found it—in good old phonetic English 'ah-AIR-ee-ohn'.

Still beaming Pitt passed it along to the truck driver mean while shaking his head to indicate none. Then he waited. The truck driver looked worried as he thought it over. Finally he shrugged his shoulders and spread his hands palms up—universal for "I don't get it!"

So Pitt tried again, this time shouting a little, waving his arms and jabbing an emphatic finger at the gas tank. The frown deepened, then, much to our chagrin, he burst out laughing. Pitt looked annoyed. "What's Greek for 'it ain't funny, McGee'?"

He went through his routine once more. The truck driver climbed down from his cab, and standing beside Pitt laughed again and shook his head.

In exasperation Pitt reached for my book. Then he saw. He had been telling the driver that he was out of poison gas! It was in the book—"Gas!" and right below it was "gasoline"—plain, ordinary, peacetime petrol.

Sign language goes just so far. It is subject to too wide interpretations. Like the time I tried to buy a wash cloth and, after rubbing my hands over my face until it was sore, came up with a razor, face cream, face soap, shaving cream and aftershave lotion—but no wash cloth. Even after I had indicated that the cloth would be used elsewhere than on the face I got only talcum powder! Such misunderstanding could lead to international complications. . . . (To be continued)

Field School PTA Sponsors Paper Drive

Next Tuesday, Jan. 13, is the date set for the first paper drive of the new year by Eugene Field PTA. The drive is under the direction of Mrs. P. H. Wiborg, finance chairman.

Hours will be from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. and room mothers will be on duty all day on the school grounds. There will be a first and second room prize for upper and lower grades; also individual prizes of a ticket to a movie for each student bringing 30 inches or more of papers.

If there are persons who would like to give their papers to Field PTA, but have no way of getting the papers to school, they may call SY. 6-8621 before the 13th for pick-up.

Last Tuesday, Jan. 6, the regular monthly board meeting was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Gordon Doyle. Business included the discussion of the coming Mexican dinner to be held in February. Luncheon followed the business meeting.

Firemen Make Money To Treat 900 Santa Fans and Others Too

More than 900 children received gifts from Santa Claus, sponsored by Sierra Madre's Volunteer Fire Department, on Christmas Eve around the big, lighted tree at City Park.

Although the exact amount of profits from the "Fireman's Ball" Dec. 20 has not been tabulated, it is believed that the funds raised this year to make the Christmas Eve treat possible are enough to add to the Firemen's financial margin which is directed each year into other channels, such as baskets of food to the needy, and another seasonal party for children at Easter time.

Ronald McMillan In New Assignment

Word has been received by Chief and Mrs. Gordon McMillan, 368 Mariposa, that their son, Ronald, 2nd class airman, USAF, has been assigned to Flight Mechanic Crew Chief on a B-25.

Ronald is now stationed at Fairfax Field, Kansas City, Kansas.

Woman's Club To Hear Radio Artist Hershey

Mrs. Percy Kortkamp, program chairman, announces that the first program of 1953 at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club will be at 11 o'clock Wednesday, Jan. 14, when James Norman Hershey, radio artist and lecturer, will speak on the subject, "As You Believe."

Mrs. E. W. Beutler will preside at the usual business meeting, and Mrs. Dewey McGee and Mrs. Lillian Sage will be in charge of the luncheon. Decorations are under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Preis.

A 15-word classified ad in the NEWS costs only 50 cents.

NOTES ABOUT A. B. HAMMOND

A. B. Hammond started West in 1886 as a youth of 17, working in the woods of Maine and Pennsylvania enroute.

At St. Louis he boarded a river steamer for Montana. The steamer went aground, and during the winter stay the party was attacked by Indians.

At the age of 20 he was a partner in a general store—now the Missoula Mercantile Co.

In 1876 he built a sawmill to furnish the ties and timbers for the Northern Pacific, then building.

In 1898 he built the Astoria and Columbia River Railroad, later sold to Jim Hill.

He organized the Hammond Lumber Company in 1900.

He passed away in 1934, 85 years old, and vigorous and active until his death.

Kindergarten Juniors Into Second Term

Enrollments are still being accepted for the second session of the Junior Kindergarten group of the Community Nursery School which begins Saturday, Jan. 10. It will continue for 12 Saturdays, with classes held from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Children are eligible for Junior Kindergarten who are five years old between Dec. 1952 and May 1953.

The group was originally formed to take care of the needs of those children of the community who missed Kindergarten last fall because of the new State Entrance Age Minimum. Because of the response to the trial session, it is hoped that the program can be expanded and made more effective.

Nursery officials have announced, however, the serious need of adequate housing for this group in order to make it a week-long activity. At present, Saturday is the only possible time because only the Nursery School Building is available.

Parents and teachers of children previously enrolled will welcome any suggestions for a place in which to carry out a larger program.

Mrs. Jean Dorn is the teacher for the group, assisted by volunteer mothers. The nurse is Mrs. Pat Bennet. Nineteen children have been enrolled thus far.

Parents who are interested in enrolling their children for the current session are asked to call Mrs. Bennett at CU. 5-3713, or CU. 5-1655.

William Cahills Move

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Cahill, Sierra Madreans for a number of years, are now making their home at 429 E. Carroll avenue, in Glendora. Mr. Cahill, former realtor associate with John C. Loomis, is continuing in real estate in that city.

MRS. MILO MURRAY has been elected regent of the John Ruskin Chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire. She will call her first meeting today, Jan. 8, to be held at the home of Mrs. Nellie Holloway, retiring regent. Lunch will be served followed by a business meeting. Mrs. Murray was last year's worthy matron of Eastern Star. Other officers for 1953 are: Mrs. Alice Sedgman, vice-regent and historian; Mrs. Joan Day, recording secretary; Mrs. A. E. Pulling, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Edward Hume, treasurer.

SALUTE GIVEN

From page one—feel that I've had at least some small part in making it possible. I love the Rose Parade, and I'm always proud to see Sierra Madre represented.

Louk believes that the voluntary, cooperative effort that goes into launching the float is "just one of many things that makes Sierra Madre the wonderful town that it is."

After his report, it was unnecessary that he write the "Thank-you Letter" which he said he wanted to write—to the people of Sierra Madre.

The construction of the float that won the Merit Award this year was supervised by Alfred James Dewey, designer and Sally Dewey with the aid of George Norris, who has been helping and supervising the putting on of the flowers for 20 years.

Bright and early the familiar faces started to arrive to help. In the guest book appear the following names: Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Baker, Mayor Kor-meier, Frank Spencer, Charlie Louk, Dottie Underwood, Tim Hawkins, Jerry Stoffel, John Sheehy, Stender Sweeney, Joe Udell, Bob Rhodes, Robert Burrier, Tom Stoffel, Ronald Laud-er, Laddy Podliska, Norris K. Norris, Maggie, Charlie, Denny and Joan Ascher, Jerry Harris, Pamela Oiler, Marion Black, Sandy Ohs, Mike Hawkins, Linda Black, Jim Yarnell, Jane Rudback, Bill Stratton, Jim Dewey, Bill Underwood, Gordon Beam, Sue Baerle, Zoe Barter, Dean Hubert, Ruth Hubert, Richard Stinton, Dennis Rimmel, Roy Davis, Dennis Wilson, Dorothy Beam, Lee Westhafer, Henry Nuetzel and four children, Jerry, Gregory, Freddie and Pamela, Robert Hannam, Gwen Dewey, Carol Bradford, Carlton and Tim Scalzo, The Mariner Scout Troop 3, under the direction of the two leaders, Mrs. Neota Meyer and Norma Laud-er, Sally Hoocher, Lee Meyer, Franklyn Bradshaw, Sharron Rickman, Jo Podliska, Patty Hawkins, Faith Gutherz, Carolyn Wread, Sharon Dorn, Carolyn McBride, Sally Laud-er.

Special thanks went to the Civil Club for supplying the sandwiches that went to the workers, some of whom were on the job until completion at 11 p.m., and to the drivers, Jim Tyler and Jimmy Spears.

AN AUTOMATIC GAS CLOTHES DRYER IS Better than Sunshine . . . AND SO EASY

SAVES TIME — Dries ordinary clothes in minutes—blankets in less than an hour!

SAVES WORK — Frees you from stooping, stretching and lugging heavy baskets!

SAVES WEAR — Gas-dried clothes last longer! No sun-fading or wind-frayed hems!

This is the BENDIX Automatic Gas Clothes Dryer. Other leading makes include Amana, Barton, Blackstone, Hamilton, Kenmore, Speed Queen, Temco, Thor and Whirlpool.

Are you still drying clothes outdoors? Then you need an automatic gas clothes dryer. For gas dries clothes faster than sunshine . . . faster than any other fuel. You have fluffy-soft laundry in minutes any time you choose to wash—day or night—rain or shine. It's sweet-smelling . . . lint-free . . . either bone-dry or in perfect ironing condition, just as you wish. An automatic gas clothes dryer eliminates drying drudgery. You simply toss in rinsed laundry, set the control, remove your laundry minutes later. It's as easy as that. Ironing is easier, too—and many pieces, like towels, are ready for linen closet without ironing.

Is such convenience beyond your means? Not at all! The operating cost of an automatic gas clothes dryer is less than 2¢ per dryer-full. And its installed price is also less than that of other automatic dryers. Visit any dealer or your Gas Company. See all that an automatic gas clothes dryer will do for you for so little!

Program Growth Marks Calendar For Lutherans

The ladies of the Mission Aid of Faith Lutheran will convene for their first meeting of the new year this noon, Jan. 8, at 12:30, in the dining room of the Woman's Clubhouse. The dessert luncheon will be served by the Mmes. F. Herzberg, A. Hesse and W. Huff. Election of new officers is on the business agenda.

Rev. A. Hesse, pastor of Faith Lutheran Church, announces that the Adult Night School of Religion will be resumed on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. These weekly study-discussion periods are held upstairs in the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre boulevard. To be discussed at this week's session will be the subject: "What Does the Bible Say About Evil?"

The local pastor states: "These 1½ hour periods are designed to be of value especially to such who are not active members of any church. Attendance imposes no enrollment, fees or obligations."

The sermon theme for the Sunday morning worship hour will be "Your Father's Business." The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will also be celebrated in this service.

Mr. Warren Zeit, chairman of Faith Lutheran's building committee reports that progress continues at the new chapel-parish hall at 835 Hastings Ranch drive. Every Wednesday evening, from 7 to 10, has been designated as Membership Work Night, when the men of the parish give voluntary manual assistance to the project. At the current rate of progress, the new building is expected to be completed within four months.

The quarterly business meeting of Faith Lutheran's voting assembly will be held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 13, according to President Charles Maass. The 1952 annual reports will be presented, followed by the election of the 1953 officers.

REV. ROBERT BELL IS KIWANIS GUEST

Guest speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon last Tuesday noon was Rev. Robert Bell, M.A. Rev. Bell, who spoke during the club's regular meeting at the Woman's Clubhouse, addressed the group on the subject of "Intelligent Living," which also is the title of a book he has written.

Among the many guests who attended was E. G. Carver, a Kiwanian of Cantor, Ill., who is visiting his nephew here, E. W. Carver, 257 E. Montecito.

MR. AND MRS. DOUG MOFFAT, shown in the picture above, are former Sierra Madre newlyweds who now live at 118½ Fano, Arcadia. They were married by the Rev. Carl Smith at the Congregational Church, Dec. 14. Mrs. Moffat was Janice Heasley, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Heasley, Jr., 30 Victoria Lane. Doug is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moffat, 177 N. Lima. Best man at the wedding was Alex Murray and the matron of honor was Mrs. Jack Thorpe, the former Carol Emmerling, both of Sierra Madre. ### LECTURER QUOTES MARY BAKER EDDY

At a free lecture on Christian Science on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 4, sponsored by the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of this city, the lecturer, John J. Selover, C.S.B. of Long Beach, Calif., concluded his lecture by telling of healing according to Biblical rule. To quote the lecturer:

"Healing of any condition, physical, mental, moral or financial, is possible today for all who obey the simple Scriptural rules as pointed out and amplified in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy."

Lcdr. Robert Wright Undergoes Surgery

Lcdr. Robert E. Wright of 540 W. Alegria, who has been a patient in the U. S. Naval Hospital in San Diego since the middle of October, underwent major surgery Dec. 29. His condition is considered serious.

Mrs. Wright, who spent the holidays in San Diego, returned here for a brief visit Monday, Jan. 5.

Angelus Guild Men To Serve Pancake Supper

The Angelus Guild is serving a Pancake Supper Sunday evening, Jan. 11, from 5:30 to 7 o'clock at Parish Hall in the Church of the Ascension. One of the most interesting aspects of the affair is the fact that the supper will be cooked and served by the men of the Parish.

Ralph Meeder, president of the Guild, has announced that although the supper is mainly a membership get-together, everyone is invited to attend—especially all new members of the church, and fellow Episcopalians and friends in the community.

The supper menu, besides the pancakes, will be sausages and coffee, with special plates for children.

The following Thursday, Jan. 15, the regular monthly meeting of the Angelus Guild will be held. After Benediction at 7:45, there will be a card party in Parish Hall beginning at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served, under the guidance of Mrs. Lowell Peterson, who will be hostess of the evening.

Christian Training School To Enlarge

Final plans now are being made to organize the most outstanding staff of instructors that has ever been presented to the Leadership Training School in Monrovia. The school, attended in previous years by representatives from three Sierra Madre churches, is a part of the activities of the Council of Christian Education. The anticipated attendance this year by Sierra Madre groups will be announced at a later date.

In expectation of the largest enrollment the school has had, the committee is offering courses for kindergarten, primary, junior and young peoples departments. A fifth course will be designed especially for those who have administrative responsibility.

The sixth course is said to have a wide appeal not only to church school officers, but to parents who are anxious to give their children the proper home environment. It is titled, "Guidance in Christian Home-making."

Death Takes Nancy Florence Williams

Miss Nancy Florence Williams, a resident of Sierra Madre for 30 years, passed away yesterday morning. She last resided with her sister, Miss Georgia A. Williams, at 196 E. Montecito. She was a native of Chillicothe, Mo.

She is survived by two other sisters who live next door at 194 E. Montecito. They are Mrs. Kate Mahuron and Miss Elizabeth M. Williams.

Other survivors are her nephew, Richard Mahuron of East Pasadena, and her niece, Elizabeth Mahuron.

Funeral services will be tomorrow, Jan. 9, at 10 a.m. in Grant Chapel, with Rev. Don Rood officiating.

Nan Merriman, who recently sang with Arturo Toscanini for a 12th consecutive performance, will be soloist with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra when it is presented by the Pasadena Philharmonic Committee at Pasadena Civic Auditorium, Wednesday, Jan. 14, at 8:30 p.m. John Barnett, associate conductor, will direct.

The famous young mezzo-soprano's solos will be "O Mio Fernando" from Donizetti's "La Favorita," "Adieu, Forests" from Tchaikowsky's "Maid of Orleans," and "El Amor Brujo" by de Falla.

Barnett also conducts Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro" Overture, Schubert's Symphony No. 5 in B Flat Major and Respighi's "The Fountains of Rome."

Girl Scout Notes

A trip to the snow at Mt. Baldy was made by the Mariners of Sierra Madre last Friday, Jan. 2. They started at 10 a.m. in a car generously donated by Mrs. S. L. Bradshaw and arrived home at 5:30 p.m. There was one toboggan taken along which was a source of continual enjoyment.

Right after lunch the girls engaged in a rousing snow fight with a group of some 20 small boys. Those who went were Mrs. S. L. Bradshaw, Sally Hooker, Sally Lauder, Franklin Bradshaw, Faith Guthrie, Jo Ann Podliska, Sharon Dorn, Patty Hawkins and Carolyn Wread.

Shipmates Aboard The "Desi-Lu"Here, minus makeup and the hectic atmosphere of their enormously successful TV show are Lucy and Desi Arnaz, relaxing aboard their boat, the Desilu. One of video's handsomest and funniest couples, they panic 20,000,000 fans each week with their "I Love Lucy" shenanigans. Their personal life, which closely parallels the moods of the Ricardo family they portray on TV, includes a ranch house near Los Angeles, their 1½ year old daughter, Lucie Désirée, and another date with the stork on January 19th. A six-page cover story in the January issue of Cosmopolitan magazine traces the Arnaz' skyrocketing career since the former Cuban aristocrat-turned-band leader met the ex-chorus girl, soda-jerker and dress model. Explaining the lovely Lucy's switch from movie siren roles to blackened teeth, hairy paws and screwball hairdos, the article quotes her as saying, "I don't know why, but I just love it when they laugh."MEETING YOUR NEIGHBORS IN*Hastings Ranch

KAY GATES, CUster 5-2193

Holidays are a wonderful institution, BUT—Well, doesn't it seem good to get the household back on schedule once more—children in school, etc.?

Speaking of children, have you noticed that over night our quiet Hastings Ranch drive has turned into a very busy thoroughfare? We feel it is timely to again remind the parents of Field School children who live on the east side of Hastings Ranch drive that the stop signs were installed on Landfair road to make a safer crossing for their children. Please discuss it with your small fry to be sure they use this crosswalk in going to and from school. Meanwhile the Pasadena City Police Department assures us they are studying means of providing further safety for the school children and residents of our district.

1952 departed amid many gay parties. Hampton road celebrated with two progressive parties on that street. A group of the oldest residents of the ranch gathered for their fourth New Year's party together, which started at the Ed Murphy's home and progressed to the Jack Murphy's, Robert Gingham's, Frank Murphy's, William Holmes', and ended with a lovely breakfast at the J. E. Rosenlind's. The Robert

With Bob Brogger

Before we say a final goodbye to football for another year, let's glance at the history of the Rose Bowl.

The Tournament of Roses in Pasadena on New Year's Day dates back to the 1880's. Football first became associated with the Tournament in 1889 when, as part of the events of the day, the University of Southern California played St. Vincent's School of Los Angeles (now known as Loyola University), in a gridiron contest.

From then on until 1923 the games were played in Tournament Park. In 1902 it held about 10,000 fans. The New Year's Day game was called the "East-West" game. In 1916 the seating capacity was increased to 43,000. The Rose Bowl was finished in time for the 1923 New Year's Day Game, when SC defeated Penn State, 14-3.

Southern California was the team to finally beat the "Big Ten." They have played in the Rose Bowl 11 times, more than any other school on the coast, having a record of 9 wins, 2 defeats. Stanford comes next with 9 times in the Bowl, and a record of 3 wins, 5 losses and 1 tie.

Yes, SC has been the big Rose Bowl team from the coast. Here's a few reasons why: They won the first New Year's Day Game. SC was the last team to beat a midwest team seven long years ago. And now they come up and beat Wisconsin to get on the right road again. (We hope). Let's not hear anything more about California having the most experience in the Rose Bowl. That's silly!

Back in 1929 Sierra Madre had foot races from the center of town to . . . guess . . . Mt. Wilson!

The man who thought of that idea must have had a very good imagination. Couldn't you just see a human being running up the old tow road to Mt. Wilson? Why, some people can't even walk it, let alone run. But it's a fact. Then naturally the newspapers heard of it, and they started printing how dangerous it was. So the races continued no more. Wish we knew the time the fastest person did it in.

Me? I'll take a bus every time!

If you sports fans are looking for something to read, be sure to get the new book that just came out called "Bob Mathias' Champion of Champions." By the way, he said at the Times Sports Award Dinner last week that he is not going to play football anymore. Not that he isn't a great athlete, but what's this we hear about his being as good as Jim Thorpe? Hmmm?

'Happy Time' Spotligted At Playhouse

"The Happy Time," Samuel Taylor's comedy at the Pasadena Playhouse continues through Jan. 11.

The fabulous and funny Bonnard family centers "The Happy Time" action and this care-free group, dedicated to the art of living, brings laughter and comic warmth.

Taken from Robert Fontaine's best selling novel, "The Happy Time" is the near-case history of a French-Canadian family of Ottawa.

Onslow Stevens heads the Playhouse cast, with David Du Vall, Peggie Campbell, Paul Birch, Graydon Spalding and others head a topflight company under Lenore Shanewise's direction.

Two Sierra Madreans have had a holiday reunion in France. Mrs. Grace R. Vane of 220 E. Sierra Madre boulevard received word from her son, Captain Frank Vane, that Miss Morland Kortkamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy C. Kortkamp of 469 W. Montecito avenue, had joined him and his wife at a party given in their La Rochelle, France home.

Miss Kortkamp is travelling with the USO show, "Brigadoon," in Europe.

American Legion Auxiliary Meets

The next regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held tonight, Jan. 8, at the home of Mrs. Maybelle Barker, 233 Ramona, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Twenty members of the unit enjoyed their annual Christmas party a week ago last Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Frances Brain as hostess. A huge Christmas tree hung with exchange gifts graced the living room while adjoining rooms were decorated in festive attire.

The evening's entertainment was progressive games and contests. Little Bobbie Curtis, granddaughter of President Bent, was the guest carolist. Miss Minnie Stinman won high honors in the games and Mrs. Amy Beisel first prize in the balloon contest. At 11 o'clock, the guests were seated at a beautifully decorated supper for refreshments.

Boy Scout News

The Boy Scouts' "Annual Snow Trip" to Mt. Baldy will be attended by approximately 100 Scouts and their leaders from Sierra Madre over next weekend, Jan. 10 and 11. Ed Oliver, district commissioner of the Mt. Wilson District of the Boy Scouts of America has announced.

Oliver, who will act as camp director, will be assisted by Frank Wright, neighborhood commissioner who will act as cook; Reg Barrett, former district chairman of the Mt. Wilson District, who now is in charge of organization and extension of new units, and District Scout Executive Bill Davis, formerly of Sierra Madre, who now lives in Altadena.

The trip to Mt. Baldy will be camped at Camp San Antonio, in Ice House Canyon. Activities include sledding and skiing, and there are comfortable accommodations of cabins and mess hall. The caravan will travel by car, leaving the city at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning. Boys of Scout or Explorer class are eligible.

Den Mothers Irene Vis and Ruth Passage of Cub Scout Dens 1 and 3, report a total of $74.39 collected by the Cub Scouts of their dens during the Yuletide through the sale of Christmas centerpieces for tables and other uses.

The money was used by the Cubs to buy a radio for the children at St. Luke Hospital in Pasadena; also 158 bags of candy, 75 color books and 75 crayola sets for children at Los Angeles County Hospital.

Special thanks go to the mothers who helped: Betty Forster, Evelyn Kingsbury, Jerry Kring, Marguerite Domschke, Harriet Goldberg, Phyllis Oliver, Carol Ann Shaidnagle and Alyce Parker.

The Scouts who assisted the Cubs also deserve special acknowledgment. They were: Dick Eddy, Bill Metzger, Bill Bowling, Andy Keedy, Bob Willis, Johnny Born, Mike Forester and Bob Vis.

The Cubs of Den 3 are: Lee Fish, Pat Forster, Freddie Harris, Bobby Kingsbury, Freddie O'Byrne, Bruce Parker and Mark Passage. Those in Den 1 are: Michael Goldberg, Gary Glazer, John Meyer, Bob Meyer, Keith Waldie and Dick Vis.

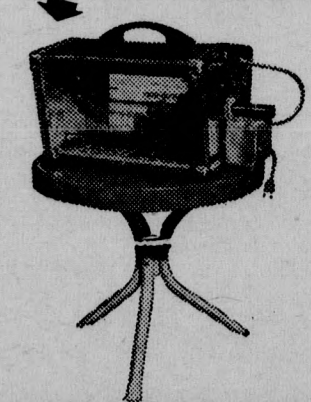

The mothers and Cubs wish to express their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harris for their generous contributions of materials.

NEW DOCTOR IN GROTH'S OFFICE

The offices of George W. Groth, Sr., M.D., and G. W. Groth, Jr., M.D., have announced the recent association of Jack C. Gilbert, M.D.

Dr. Gilbert attended high school in Whittier, before studying for two years at Pasadena Junior College. Shortly before graduation from UCLA he was inducted into the Army which he served as an enlisted man in the Medical Department for 18 months before being commissioned as a 2nd lieutenant.

After three years overseas, Dr. Gilbert was discharged with the rank of major and finished his medical training at Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital, and interned at Sesside Memorial Hospital in Long Beach. He recently has finished a post graduate course in anesthesiology, radiology and nuclear medicine.

While serving in England, Dr. Gilbert met the girl who now is his wife, Rosalind, and returned there to marry her in 1947. They have one daughter, Jacqueline, 3. Their residence is 75 N. Baldwin.

amount of "labor" in proportion to the amounts received. By "labor" he referred to the need of more persons to help in canvassing and other actions necessary to the successful completion of the campaign's objective to raise $6000.

He said he hoped that those groups that had not yet fully cooperated in this respect would wake up to the fact that it was to their benefit to do so.

Ralph "Pappy" Welch said that money raising projects would begin in the near future to finance the proposed swimming pool. These projects might include dinner affairs and a Country Fair, he said.

The question was raised as to whether the proposed site of the swimming pool at City Park was a good one considering that it might cause too much noise and contribute to a traffic congestion. Welch said that this was the first time the location had been questioned, and believed that such an opinion was very much in the minority.

"The boy was about 200 yards up the side of the mountain from Winter Creek. It was a ticklish job moving him—we didn't want to hurt him any more than he already was—but we had to get him in the stretcher to lower him down to Winter Creek."
